Richards Packaging Income Fund

Management Information Circular

For the Annual Meeting of Unitholders

To be held on Friday, May 10, 2013

The trustees (the “Trustees”) of Richards Packaging Income Fund (the “Fund”), in conjunction with the management of Richards Packaging Inc. (“Richards Canada”), are pleased to announce the Fund’s ninth annual meeting (the “Meeting”). The Trustees of the Fund and management of Richards Canada have prepared this Management Information Circular, are asking you to vote and are soliciting proxies and voting instructions for the votes on the matters to be considered at the Meeting of holders (the “Unitholders”) of trust units (the “Units”) of the Fund. The costs of preparing and mailing the Notice of Meeting, this Management Information Circular and related matters are being borne by the Fund, Richards Packaging Holdings Inc. and Richards Canada. The record date for notice and voting is April 9, 2013.

The Fund

The Fund is an open-ended, limited purpose trust established under the laws of the Province of Ontario by a Declaration of Trust (as amended, the “Trust Declaration”) to hold the securities of Richards Packaging, directly or indirectly. “Richards Packaging” as used herein refers to all the subsidiaries of the Fund which include Richards Packaging Holdings Inc. (“Holdings”), Richards Canada, Richards Packaging Holdings (US) Inc. (“Holdings US”), 071907 Inc., Richards Packaging, Inc. (“Richards US”), The E.J. McKernan Co (“McKernan”) and McKernan Packaging –Richards de Mexico S.A. de C.V. Richards Packaging is a full service rigid packaging distributor and has 20 locations across Canada and the United States.

The Fund does not carry on any active business but rather holds the securities of Holdings, directly or indirectly. The affairs of the Fund are supervised by its board of Trustees, who are responsible for, among other things, representing the Fund as a direct or indirect shareholder and note indenture holder of Holdings and authorizing distributions from the Fund to the Unitholders.

Information for Beneficial Holders of Securities

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to beneficial holders of Units (herein referred to as “Beneficial Unitholders”), as they do not hold Units registered in their own names on the records of the Fund. Such holders should note that since all Units are held in the book-based system operated by CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. (“CDS”), only proxies deposited by CDS, as the sole registered Unitholder, can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. If Units are listed in an account statement provided to a Beneficial Unitholder by a broker, then those Units will not be registered in the Beneficial Unitholder’s name on the records of the Fund. All of such Units will be registered under the name of CDS & Co., the registration name for CDS. Units may only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Unitholder. Without specific instructions, brokers/nominees are prohibited from voting Units on behalf of their clients.

In accordance with applicable securities laws, the Fund has distributed copies of the Notice and this Management Information Circular and the form of proxy to be used by CDS as the sole registered Unitholder (collectively, the “meeting materials”) to CDS and intermediaries for onward distribution to Beneficial Unitholders.

Voting

Intermediaries are required to forward meeting materials to Beneficial Unitholders unless a Beneficial Unitholder has waived the right to receive them. Typically, intermediaries will use service companies to forward the meeting materials to Beneficial Unitholders. Beneficial Unitholders who have not waived the right to receive meeting materials will either:

- a) be given a voting instruction form which must be completed and signed by the Beneficial Unitholder in accordance with the directions on the voting instruction form, which may in some cases permit the completion of the voting instruction form by telephone or through the Internet. A Beneficial Unitholder who receives a voting instruction form cannot use that form to vote the Units directly at the Meeting; rather, the Beneficial Unitholder must complete the voting instruction form in accordance with the instructions contained therein well in advance of the Meeting; or
- b) less frequently, be given a proxy which has already been signed by the intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature), which is restricted as to the number of Units beneficially owned by the Beneficial Unitholder but which is otherwise uncompleted. This form of proxy need not be signed by the Beneficial Unitholder. In this case, the Beneficial Unitholder who wishes to submit a proxy should otherwise properly complete the form of proxy received from the intermediary and deposit it with the Fund's transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, Attn: Proxy Department, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1 as described below under "Appointment of Proxies".

The purpose of these procedures is to permit Beneficial Unitholders to direct voting of the Units they beneficially own. Should a Beneficial Unitholder who receives either a proxy or a voting instruction form wish to attend and vote at the Meeting in person, or have another person attend and vote on behalf of the Beneficial Unitholder, the Beneficial Unitholder should insert the Beneficial Unitholder's, or such other person's, name in the blank space provided or, in the case of a voting instruction form, follow the corresponding instructions on the form. In either case, Beneficial Unitholders should carefully follow the instructions of their intermediaries and their service companies.

Revocation of Proxies

A registered Unitholder who has given a proxy may revoke the proxy:

- a) by completing a proxy signed by the Unitholder or by the Unitholder's attorney authorized in writing bearing a later date and depositing it with the transfer agent as described above; or
- b) by depositing an instrument of revocation in writing executed by the Unitholder or by the Unitholder's attorney authorized in writing:
 - i) at the registered office at Richards Canada at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment of the Meeting, at which the proxy is to be used, or
 - ii) with the chairman of the Meeting prior to the exercise of the proxy; or
- c) in any other manner permitted by law.

A Beneficial Unitholder may revoke a voting instruction form or a waiver of the right to receive meeting materials and to vote given to an intermediary at anytime by written notice to the intermediary, except that an intermediary may not act on a revocation of a voting instruction form or of a waiver of the right to receive meeting materials and to vote that is not received by the intermediary in sufficient time prior to the Meeting.

If you are a Beneficial Unitholder and wish to vote in person at the Meeting, please review the voting instructions provided to you or contact your broker or agent well in advance of the Meeting to determine how you can do so.

Proxy Solicitation and Voting at the Meeting

Solicitation of Proxies and Voting Instructions

This Management Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies and voting instructions by the Trustees of the Fund and management of Richards Canada for use at the Meeting and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Meeting and in this Management Information Circular. In addition to the use of mail, proxies and voting instructions may be solicited in person, by telephone, or by other means of communication, by employees of Richards Canada, who will not be remunerated therefor. Richards Canada reserves the right to retain proxy solicitation services or dealers, for appropriate compensation, but has no current plans to do so.

Appointment of Proxies

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are Trustees. A registered Unitholder who wishes to appoint some other person to represent him/her at the Meeting may do so by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another proper form of proxy. Such other person need not be a Unitholder.

To be valid, proxies must be returned to CIBC Mellon Trust Company so as to arrive not later than 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on May 8, 2013 or, if the Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours before any reconvened meeting or be deposited with the chairman of the Meeting prior to the commencement of the Meeting or any reconvened meeting. Proxies may be returned by facsimile to (416) 368-2502, or by mail (a) in the enclosed envelope, or (b) in an envelope addressed to CIBC Mellon Trust Company, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario M1S 0A1.

Voting of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy, who are Trustees, will vote or withhold from voting Units in respect of which they are appointed, on any ballot that may be called for, in accordance with the instructions of the Unitholder appointing them and, if the Unitholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the Units will be voted accordingly. In the absence of such specification, such Units will be voted in favour of each of the matters to be acted upon as set out herein. The persons appointed under the form of proxy are conferred with discretionary authority with respect to amendments or variations of those matters specified in the form of proxy and Notice of Meeting and with respect to any other matters, which may be properly brought before the Meeting. In the event that amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting are properly brought before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy to vote in accordance with their judgment on such matter or business. At the time of printing this Management Information Circular, the Trustees knew of no such amendment, variation, or other matter.

Corporate Governance Disclosure

The following constitutes the Fund’s disclosure of its corporate governance practices and is made pursuant to and with reference to National Instrument 58-101, Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices (hereinafter collectively the “Corporate Governance Guidelines”).

Board Composition

The independent Trustees/Directors are Donald Wright, Wayne McLeod, Derek Ridout and Rami Younes. A person is “independent” if he or she does not have a direct or indirect “material relationship” with Richards Packaging. A “material relationship” is a relationship which, in the view of the Trustees/Directors, could be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of a Trustee’s/Director’s independent judgment. Gerry Glynn is not considered an independent Trustee/Director as he is Chief Executive Officer of Richards Canada.

Certain of the Trustees/Directors are also directors of other issuers that are reporting issuers in Canada (or the equivalent in foreign jurisdictions) as follows:

Name of Trustee/Director	Directorships
Donald Wright	Condor Petroleum Inc., Cinaport Acquisition Corp, GMP Capital Inc., DHX Media Ltd., Equity Financial Holdings Inc., Lateral Capital Corporation and Tuscany International Drilling Inc.
Wayne McLeod	New Flyer Industries and Morguard Corporation
Derek Ridout	The Data Group Inc and Shoppers Drug Mart Corporation

The Boards meet at least once each quarter, with additional meetings held when appropriate. The independent Trustees/Directors have the ability to hold meetings at which non-independent Trustees/Directors and members of management are not in attendance. During 2012, this occurred by the independent Trustees/Directors holding in camera sessions at the conclusion of most of the meetings, where the independent Trustees/Directors met in the absence of Mr. Glynn and other members of management. In 2012, there were 6 meetings of the Boards. Overall attendance by the Trustees/Directors at the Board meetings was 97% and attendance by committee members at the Audit and Compensation and Corporate Governance committee meetings was 95% and 100%, respectively. The combined overall attendance at both the Board and committee meetings was 97%. Individual attendance at Trustee/Director meetings and committee meetings for the year ended December 31, 2012 was as follows:

Board Mandate

The mandate can be found in Schedule A to this Management Information Circular.

Position Descriptions

The role of the Chair of each of the Boards of Trustees and Directors is described in the Board of Trustees and Directors – Terms of Reference attached herewith as Schedule A to this Management Information Circular.

Individual position descriptions for the Chair of each Board committee have not been developed. However, the Boards have implemented terms of reference for the Audit Committee and the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee which set out the fundamental duties, responsibilities and objectives of those committees. The chair of each committee has the responsibility of monitoring that the committee is meeting its terms of reference.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee has developed and approved a position description for the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the oversight of the day to day management of Richards Packaging's operations, the strategic and business plan of Richards Packaging and overseeing the quality and integrity of the management of Richards Packaging.

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the orientation and continuing education of Directors and committee members. The Board of Trustees is responsible for establishing and administering the orientation and continuing education of Trustees and committee members. New Trustees/Directors are briefed on the role of the Boards and its committees and on the Fund's structure, financial results and other aspects. Extensive documentation is provided to them to enable them to better understand the Fund and Richards Packaging. In addition, tours of the organization's facilities are conducted where appropriate.

On an ongoing basis, meetings are held regularly to keep the Boards informed of developments within Richards Packaging. In addition, presentations are made and reports are provided on various aspects of Richards Packaging's operations.

Ethical Business Conduct

Richards Packaging has developed a Code of Conduct which prescribes standards of behavior in many areas relating to financial integrity, customer and supplier relations, computer security, conflicts of interest, confidential information and accuracy of books and records. The Code of Conduct applies to all Directors and employees of Richards Packaging and to Trustees. Management monitors compliance with the Code of Conduct. The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee monitors management and Director/Trustee compliance with the Code of Conduct. Any deviations from the Code of Conduct would be discussed at Board Meetings. A copy of the Code of Conduct can be found on the Fund's website at www.richardspackaging.com and on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing transactions in respect of which a Director or senior member of management has a material interest to ensure they reflect market practices and are in the best interests of Richards Packaging or the Fund. The Board of Trustees is responsible for reviewing transactions in respect of which a Trustee has a material interest to ensure they reflect market practices and are in the best interest of Richards Packaging or the Fund. In the case of any transaction or agreement in respect of which a Trustee/Director has a material interest, the Trustee/Director is required to disclose his interest to the Board and to refrain from voting on such transaction.

Nomination of Trustees/Directors

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised entirely of independent members and is responsible for the nomination of new Directors and the Board of Trustees has this responsibility for the nomination of new Trustees. Although the Board of Trustees is not comprised entirely of independent members, the majority of the members are independent and this ensures an objective nomination process. It is the role of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Trustees to annually assess the size and composition of their respective Boards and committees, to review the effectiveness of their Boards and to recommend the addition or replacement of one or more Trustee/Director as may be considered appropriate from time to time.

Compensation

The Directors, acting on recommendations of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee, reviews the adequacy and the form of senior management's and the Directors' compensation, as determined based on a review of the competitive marketplace, to ensure that they are current and reflective of each of their roles and responsibilities. The Board of Trustees reviews the adequacy and form of the Trustees' compensation in the same manner. See also "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" on page 11 hereof.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee has the following roles and responsibilities:

- reviews and makes recommendations to the Boards concerning the appointment, hiring, compensation, benefits and termination of senior officers and all other significant employees of Richards Packaging.
- annually reviews the Chief Executive Officer's goals and objectives for the upcoming year and provide an appraisal of the Chief Executive Officer's performance.
- makes recommendations concerning the remuneration of the Board of Directors.
- administers and makes recommendations regarding the operation of the long-term incentive program ("LTIP").
- develops Richards Packaging's approach to corporate governance issues,
- advises the Board in filling vacancies on the Board and periodically reviews the composition and effectiveness of the Board and the contribution of individual Directors.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of Derek Ridout (Chair), Donald Wright, Wayne McLeod and Rami Younes, who are all independent of management.

Other Board Committees

There are no other standing committees other than the Audit Committee and the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.

Assessments

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee regularly conducts an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, individual Directors and of its committee. Assessments are performed through the use of Board and Director self assessment questionnaires and are compiled by the Chair of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee and reviewed with the Board. The Board of Trustees regularly conducts an evaluation of its effectiveness, as well as of its committees and the individual Trustees in the same manner. An assessment was completed in 2011 and the next self assessment is scheduled for 2013.

Compensation of Executive Officers of Holdings and its' Subsidiaries

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

The objective of Richards Packaging's executive compensation program is to provide both short and long term rewards to senior executives that are consistent with individual and company performance and their contribution to Richards Packaging's objectives. This includes base salaries, an annual incentive plan ("AIP") and grants under the LTIP. Levels of compensation are established and maintained with the intent of attracting and retaining quality employees.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee reviews and recommends on an annual basis the compensation under the AIP and the LTIP for each senior executive officer and the Board ultimately approves such compensation.

Annual Incentive Plans

Senior management, including the Named Executive Officers and other professional and managerial level employees of Richards Packaging, participates in the AIP, which is designed to motivate and reward the on-going efforts and successes of management and professional staff. The plan provides incentive payments by way of annual cash bonuses based on: (i) level/position; (ii) the actual individual/group performance as compared to plan in key result areas; and (iii) the financial performance of Richards Packaging. Approximately $843,000 (2011 – $619,000) is payable to approximately 62 employees for 2012 (2011 – 65) under the AIP, of which approximately $281,000 (2011 – $106,000) was paid to the Named Executive Officers, as indicated in the Summary Compensation Table.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee sets Mr. Glynn's annual objectives and reviews his performance. The annual objectives of the other Named Executive Officers are set by the Chief Executive Officer of Richards Canada, who also reviews their performance, subject to the approval of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee.

Long-Term Incentive Plan

Key senior management of Richards Packaging are eligible to participate in the LTIP. The purpose of the LTIP is to provide eligible participants with compensation opportunities that will encourage ownership of Units, enhance Richards Packaging's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel and reward key senior management for significant performance and associated per Unit cash flow growth of the Fund. Pursuant to the LTIP, Richards Canada has set aside a pool of funds based upon the amount by which the Fund's per Unit distributions exceed certain per Unit distributable cash threshold amounts. Awards granted to participants under the LTIP program are based upon a dollar value approved by the Board of Directors and can only be used to purchase Units in the marketplace. The awards vest over a three year period. The participants submit proof of payment for Units purchased in the open market before he or she is reimbursed for his or her entitlement. It is up to the discretion of the participant to submit a claim for the amount that has vested, however, the amount that has vested can be deferred until a future period. The LTIP is administered by the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board of Directors of Richards Canada or the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee have the power to, among other things, determine: (1) those individuals who will participate in the LTIP; (2) the level of participation of each participant; and (3) the time or times when ownership of the Units will vest for each participant. LTIP awards are granted to employees who have managed specific working capital levels and contributed to increasing earnings in Richards Packaging.

For 2012 $99,900 (2011 – $99,900) was awarded to 8 employees (2011 – 8 employees). The Directors committed to annual funding of $100,000 for 2013.

Executive Compensation

The base salary of each Named Executive Officer (as defined below) of Richards Packaging is fixed and determined based on the individual's level of responsibility, his experience level and overall performance. The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee set the base salaries for the majority of the Named Executive Officers. The base salaries of those executives other than the Chief Executive Officer were determined by the Chief Executive Officer as stated in their employment agreements. The AIP payments and LTIP awards, also determined by the Chief Executive Officer, are variable and based on Richards Packaging's achievement of financial targets and/or on the individual's achievement of personal goals and objectives for a given year. The AIP payments for the Chief Financial Officer and President is based 75% on the actual level of earnings before interest, income taxes and amortization achieved by Richards Packaging in comparison to budget and 25% on the achievement of goals and objectives. The AIP for the President of McKernan Packaging and VP of US operations is based 100% on the actual level of earnings of their respective divisions in comparison to budget. The Named Executive Officers must meet 80% of budgeted earnings levels in order to receive a payout under the actual in comparison to budget portion of their AIP payment.

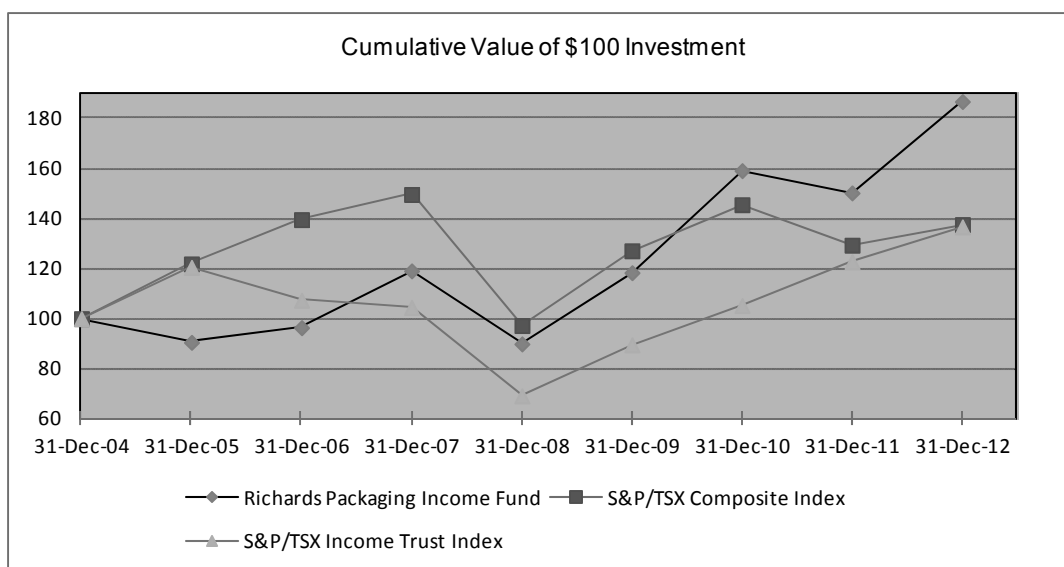

Compensation matters concerning the Chief Executive Officer are approved by the Board on the recommendation of the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee. Mr. Glynn is subject to an employment agreement with Richards Canada which was renegotiated in late 2012. In consideration for his services, Mr. Glynn receives a base salary which is fixed for the duration of the agreement and an annual cash bonus which is based 75% on the actual level of earnings before interest, income taxes and amortization achieved by Richards Packaging in comparison to budget and 25% on the achievement of goals and objectives which in 2012 related to working capital, human resources and financing and investor relations. In 2013, for the 2012 year, Mr. Glynn received approximately 62% of his targeted bonus entitlement relating to the earnings level and the remainder of his bonus was awarded to him for achieving goals relating to working capital management, manufacturing strategy, rebalancing Richards Packaging's management resources and improving investor relations.

All the Named Executive Officers are eligible to participate in the benefit plans that are available to substantially all of Richards Packaging's other employees. These benefit programs include supplementary medical insurance, life insurance and long-term disability. Besides the plans that are available to substantially all employees, Richards Packaging offers additional limited perquisites to some or all of the Named Executive Officers. These perquisites are consistent with those provided to other executives and are designed to ensure that the Company can retain the Named Executive Officer. These additional benefits consist of mainly automobile allowances.

The Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee has reviewed with senior management this Compensation Discussion and Analysis and based on such review has recommended to the Board that this Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this Circular.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the total cumulative return to Unitholders on $100 invested in Units with the total cumulative return of the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index and the total cumulative Unitholder return of the S&P/TSX Income Trust Index (assuming reinvestment of distributions as of the date of payment of same) for the period from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2012. On December 31, 2012, the Units closed at $8.54 and $9.20 on April 9, 2013.

The trend shown by the above performance graph is an overall increase in Unitholder return since January 1, 2005 for the Fund. In 2009, the Units saw significant gains due to the recovery of the economy which continued into 2010. In 2011, the Units price was slightly lower as a significant Unitholder put their position up for sale in the last quarter but significant gains were again experienced in 2012 as earnings strengthened. The trend in total executive compensation paid over the comparable period to the Named Executive Officers, included in the below table has not increased or decreased at the same rate as the Unitholder return. The total compensation earned by the Named Executive Officers over the past two financial years is consistent with the objectives of Richards Packaging's executive compensation program.
